Must Do Activities

May 2008

Dear E-Club Member,

So, you have booked your accommodations, planned your route, figured your budget and requested time off from work... now it's time to PLAY!

Here are a few suggestions of our favorite activities in and around Glacier to make your vacation everything you desire.

Must Do Activities while in Waterton-Glacier International Peace Park

1. Take a Ride Back in Time aboard the world-famous and Eco-friendly Red Buses
2. Golf Like a Pro on Glacier Park Lodge & Resort's 9-hole, long-par 36 course
3. Grab Life by the Oars while rafting or floating on wild and scenic rivers bordering the Park
4. Unwind Montana Style with treatments from Remedies Day Spa at Glacier Park Lodge & Resort
5. Glide Across Alpine Lakes aboard historic wooden boats on one or all four lake cruises
6. Treat Yourself Like Royalty during Prince of Wales Hotel's traditional Afternoon Tea
7. Saddle-up Pard'ner on a trusty steed as you meander through lush meadows and down alpine trails
8. Take a Dip into Whiskey Chocolate or Three Cheese Sauce during Après Fondue at Many Glacier Hotel
9. Create a Memory with a Glacier Memories™ Storyboard or customized photo souvenir (needs hyperlink to new web page)
10. Quit Moosin' Around and come in to shop! Our stores have all of your "bear" essentials and more (needs hyperlink to new page)
11. Lights! Projector! Action! and Montana's premier performer, David Walburn, entertains Monday through Saturday at Many Glacier Hotel

Ordering box lunches from any one of the hotels or inns is a tasty and economical way to stave off hunger while partaking in outdoor activities. Our box lunches offer ham, turkey or vegetarian wraps complimented by chips, fruit, vegetable, water and of course, dessert.

Please place your box lunch order by 7p.m. the evening before at any of our front desks. Enjoy Glacier! - Executive Chef, Michael Gorsk

It takes just one call to our friendly and knowledgeable reservation team at (406) 892-2525 to make these activity reservations. So, telephone today!
